Sunday 6 Sept

11 am
Octopus

A fine Hull tradition – a local jazz swing big band with a combined age of nearly 700 years!

1pm
Bugalu Foundation

A nine-piece powerhouse from the north of England, Bugalu Foundation are the fresh new sound of Barrio Funk and Latin Soul! Their style of boogaloo is heavily influenced by the music of Ray Barretto and Tito Puente, bringing together musical traditions of West and East Harlem in an irresistible fusion of Jazz, Funk and Soul.

Supported by
Jazz North Northern Line

2pm
Hull Samba

Keeping the Latin groove going for a sunny Sunday afternoon!

2.30pm
Trevor Roots and Dread Supreme - Songs of Freedom

In a new J-Night commission for Freedom Festival 2015, Dread Supreme return with great Manchester reggae vocalist Trevor Roots, in a tribute to the political troubadours of yesteryear. Trevor's voice, sometimes sounding like Dennis Brown, sometimes like Eddy Grant, serves out lyrics that were relevant in the 60s but seem even more relevant today… "Don't look back over your shoulder, keep your eye on freedom's shore…"

4.30pm
House Gospel Choir

Anyone who's been caught up in the rapture of a true house classic can testify to its power to unify and uplift. House Gospel Choir is a home for anyone who has ever found themselves lost in music at a festival, in a night club, or on the tube on the way to work. Live keyboards, bass and percussion combine with incredible voices to create an electrifying house-meets-gospel sound that never fails to raise the roof. We can't think of a better way to bring Freedom Festival 2015 to a close!

2017 Hull TELL THE WORLD

HULL 2017 UK CITY OF CULTURE

J-Night is proud to be a creative partner for Freedom Festival Hull. For 2015 we're bringing our Yellow Bus stage back to the pier again, and we're also very excited to be presenting two very special performances in the beautiful Holy Trinity Church.
See you there!

FRIDAY 4 AND SATURDAY 5 SEPTEMBER AT 7:15PM, HOLY TRINITY CHURCH, HULL
£17 ADULT, £15 CHILD

We're delighted to be bringing the smash hit of the Edinburgh Fringe to Freedom Festival 2015.

When Mike Oldfield's prog rock masterpiece was released in 1973, it required more than 30 musicians to perform it. Join us to witness a herculean feat as Daniel Holdsworth and Aidan Roberts recreate the beauty and playful lunacy of one of the most important albums of the 20th Century with just four hands and four feet. Two blokes, a stage full of instruments – a knockout spectacle and lovingly-crafted homage - don't miss this thrilling theatrical experience!

'A musical tour de force. Mesmerising to watch.'

Tickets available from Hull Box Office, online www.hullboxoffice.com or on 01482 221113

Friday 4 Sept

7pm Mr Wilson's Second Liners

The Yellow Bus party for Freedom Festival 2015 gets started as quintessential New Orleans meets 90s club classics with Mr Wilson's Second Liners. They're a rabble of mischievous northerners who expend their collective musical talent paying homage to the diehard days of the Hacienda, 90s club culture and its greatest hero, Mr Tony Wilson. It's dance music, but not as you know it…

7.55pm Minima - Phantom of the Opera

Minima's music is a 21st-Century interpretation of the images of silent and avant-garde film. For Freedom Festival, they present Lon Chaney's classic 1925 silent film Phantom of the Opera with a stunning live contemporary musical accompaniment.

9.25pm Mr Wilson's Second Liners

9.45pm James Taylor Quartet (JTQ)

James Taylor, one of the great British instrumentalists of his generation, has been taking his trademark howling Hammond Acid Jazz sound to the masses for more than 25 years. Still famed for its upbeat, energetic live shows, JTQ shows no sign of slowing down and they're back in Hull this September for the first time in 8 years.

Saturday 5 Sept

11am Hull Samba

Bring your dancing shoes down to Nelson Street as Hull Samba get us warmed up for another day of great music on the Yellow Bus stage.

12noon Hillbilly Troupe

Hull's Hillbilly Troupe play folk music for the 21st century. Their sound is a rich melting pot of traditional, punk, skiffle, ska, Americana, indie and blues and they've got a reputation for being the band to get everyone up dancing.

1pm Hull Samba

2.30pm Mr Wilson's Second Liners

Our Yellow Bus rolls back into town on Friday 4th September for three days of fantastic live music - you can find us at the Pier on Nelson Street.

3.30pm YolanDa Brown

Double MOBO Award Winning Saxophonist YolanDa Brown is widely regarded as the emerging voice of mainstream Jazz in the UK - she is one of the most exciting, in-demand live performers around today. Her music is a wonderful mix of genres, touching on Jazz, Soul and Reggae and for Freedom Festival 2015 she performs her gorgeous Reggae Love Songs set.

5.30pm Shri presents Just a Vibration featuring Skelmanthorpe Brass Band

Composer/proudcer/musician Shri Sriram has remixed work for De La Soul, Kronos Quartet and Asha Bhosle, amongst many others. With his exciting new collaboration, Just A Vibration, he brings together two distinctly diverse musical forms… contemporary Indian classical music with the booming magnificence of the Brass Band.

Arts Council England funded commission by Durham Brass Festival, London Jazz Festival and J-Night

7.15pm Get the Blessing

Made up of Portishead rhythm masters Jim Barr and Clive Deamer, on bass and drums respectively, Pete Judge on trumpet and Jake McMurchie on saxophone, Get The Blessing have a unique signature sound that never loses sight of thumping tunes, monstrously infectious beats, or joyous collective spontaneity. Prepare to be teased, beguiled, soothed, spooked, jolted, and ultimately uplifted.

9.45pm Public Service Broadcasting

With a reputation as one of the most exciting live acts in the UK, Public Service Broadcasting are on a quest to inform, educate and entertain audiences around the globe. Their spell-binding live AV Transmissions see them weave samples from archive footage and propaganda material around live drums, guitar, banjo and electronics - beaming our past back at us through vintage TV sets and state of the art modern video projection devices.
